1. Heard Shri A.V. Bandiwadekar, learned Advocate for the Applicant and Shri A.J. Chougule, learned Presenting Officer for the Respondents.
2. The present O.A. pertains to grant of Appointment on Compassionate Ground. The matter was partly heard before vacation.
3. Today, learned P.O. for the Respondents seeks permission to file affidavit along with annexures on record in support of his contention that the applicant's request for grant of appointment on compassionate ground was already rejected and the same was communicated and in support of contention that the O.A. is not within limitation he seeks permission to file affidavit.
4. Learned Advocate for the Applicant opposed filing of additional affidavit at this stage being belated.
5. True, there is delay on the part of learned P.O. for filing relevant documents on record. However, in the interest of justice, I am inclined to grant permission to the learned P.O. to file affidavit so as to decide the point in issue on merit. Affidavit is taken on record and copy is served upon learned Advocate for the Applicant.
