Tribunal's orders

MA's No.167 and 168 of 2016 in OA No.135 of 2015

The State of Maharashtra & Ors. ..Applicants

Vs.

Smt. Mangala A. Kanoje ..Respondent

Heard Shri N.K. Rajpurohit, learned Chief Presenting Officer for the Applicant-original Respondents. None for the Respondent-original Applicant.

2. MA No.167 of 2016 for condonation of delay has been filed in MA No.168 of 2016 seeking extension of time for implementation of the order dated 7.1.2016 of this Tribunal in OA No.135 of 2015. On perusal of the said order it is seen that the order was passed on the basis of affidavit in reply filed by the State Govt. wherein it was admitted that punishment could not be imposed on a retired Govt. servant without approval of the Govt. in starting a DE. Respondent no.1 has also undertaken to set aside the order passed respondent no.2 which was found lacking for the legal authority. All these facts are mentioned in the aforesaid order. The respondent no.1 has also given an undertaking that necessary action will be taken within four weeks. In fact there is no direction from this Tribunal fixing any time limit. It is not understood as to how this present MA for extension of time is maintainable when this Tribunal has never fixed any time limit to implement the aforesaid order. The undertaking was given by respondent no.1.

3. MA No.167 of 2016 for condonation of delay as well as MA No.168 of 2016 for extension of time to implement the order of this Tribunal are dismissed as having no merit.

Heard Shri A.V. Bandiwadekar, learned Advocate for the Applicant, Smt. K.S. Gaikwad, learned Presenting Officer for Respondents No.1 and Smt. Punam Mahajan, learned Advocate for Respondent No.2.

2. Smt. Mahajan, Ld. Advocate for Respondent No.2 stated that there is some urgency in the matter and therefore she mentioned this matter. This matter was already kept for final hearing on 7.6.2016 and reply is to be filed before that date. Interim relief has been granted in favour of the Applicant. Smt. Mahajan, Ld. Advocate requested that the matter may be kept for reply of respondent no.1 on 2.5.2016 so that if possible final decision may be taken before vacation starts. This she is requesting because if the OA is ultimately decided in favour of the applicant, the respondent no.2 may get an opportunity for another posting during ensuing general transfer. SDO, Baramati & Ors. ..Applicants
Vs.

Shri V.D. Kulkarni & Ors. ..Respondents

Heard Shri N.K. Rajpurohit, learned Chief Presenting Officer for the Applicants-original Respondents and Shri A.V. Bandiwadekar, learned Advocate for the Respondents-original Applicant.

2. This MA is presented by the applicants-original respondents seeking extension of time to comply with the interim order made by Single Bench presided over by one of us [Shri R.B. Malik, Member (J)] on 10.2.2016. The respondents-original applicants are represented by their advocate Shri Bandiwadekar.

3. Now, perusal of the record shows that the Tribunal was not quite approving of the manner in which the State went about complying with its order and ultimately keeping the OA pending directions were given by order dated 5.1.2016 read with order dated 12.1.2016 effectively directing that even as the efforts may continue to settle the matter of all similarly placed employees but in case of the present applicants compliance must be made within three months. It is that time limit for which extension is hereby sought. Shri Bandiwadekar, Ld. Advocate has made his submissions indicating inter alia that he has no objection if the extension is granted provided the respondents were to act with due dispatch. As the matter came to be debated at the bar it came about that the direction as hereinbelow needs to be given so that the State gets time and at the same time the respondents-original applicants are not compelled to wait indefinitely. This MA is disposed off with a direction that the compliance with the interim order be made by 28.6.2016 and in case the compliance is not made without any further directions or orders the OA itself will be heard finally on 30.6.2016. No order as to costs. Hamdast.
