Heard Shri A.V. Bandiwadekar, the learned Advocate for the Applicant and Ms. N.G. Gohad, the learned Presenting Officer for the Respondents.

Our order of 15.2.2016 and more particularly of 30.8.2016 may be perused. The learned P.O. seeks one week's adjournment to file the Affidavit. We could not have been clearer than what have been in the two orders referred to above. The learned P.O. is hereby directed that apart from filing the Affidavit for which with complete reluctance we are giving one last chance. She shall also ensure that the person who is responsible for non-compliance as of now should be identified and his name disclosed to us either in the same Affidavit or even independently thereof. This is because we may then think, as to whether we should direct an adverse entry to be taken in his Confidential Record for negligence and discharge of his duties in so far as this OA is concerned.
