ORAL ORDER :

Heard Shri A.S.Deshmukh learned Advocate for the applicant and Smt. Priya Bharaswadkar learned Presenting Officer for the respondents.

2. Learned P.O. files affidavit in reply on behalf of respondent nos.2 and 3. It is taken on record. Copy thereof has been served on the other side.

3. Learned Advocate for the applicant files true copy of the judgment delivered in O.A.No.235/2013 dated 05-09-2013, which would show that there is no rule to send any Government servant compulsorily on leave and similar such order was quashed and set aside.

4. Learned Advocate for the applicant points out towards the fact that the present applicant has explicitly averred in the O.A. in paragraph "viii)" that there is no rule to send a Government servant on compulsory leave, and the respondents have not replied this aspect in their affidavit in reply.

5. Learned P.O. submits that Shri Prakash s/o. Ghamaji Khomane, Joint District Registrar and Collector of Stamps, Beed from the office of respondent no.3 is present in person.

6. It thus appears that the concerned respondents are applying a shortcut without any provision of law. In the circumstances, without placing the present Original Application for hearing on the next date, concerned respondent no.3 is directed to go through the material on record and take corrective steps on or before the returnable dated and shall report about the same on the next date.

7. After considering the matter and going through the record if the respondents come to the conclusion that legally no corrective steps can be taken a short
