Tribunal's orders

M.A. No.112 of 2016 in O.A. No.1120 of 2015

Heard Miss S.L. Maindad, Ld. Advocate holding for Shri A.A. Desai, Ld. Advocate for the Applicants and Shri N.K. Rajpurohit, Ld. CPO for the Respondents.

2. This is an application for amendment of the OA. Ld. CPO complains that copy of MA has not been served on him. Be it noted at the outset that the Ld. CPO was insistent on granting him time to file affidavit in reply to this MA inter alia because according to him there are details which are necessary to be furnished which are absent herein and that may have some implication in so far as the issue of limitation is concerned which it is possible may have to be raised. It was only to this limited extent that I mentioned that I have heard the Ld. CPO. I place this on record further to make it clear that for the reasons to be presently set out I decline to protract this MA.

3. The affidavit in reply to the main OA has not been filed. If these amendments are incorporated in the OA the respondents are not going to be prejudiced at all because in any case they will have an opportunity to meet with the case of the applicants which would even otherwise have been the case in the OA unamended. Ld. CPO was mentioning a possible plea of a separate application for condonation of delay being raised that would be there even otherwise regardless of whether the amendment is allowed or not allowed or whether OA and MA proceed as two proceedings. In that view of the matter, therefore, I can visualise no prejudice at all being caused to the respondents. And most importantly what is being allowed hereby is raising of a plea without ruling upon the worth thereof.

4. The amendment as per schedule hereto is allowed to be incorporated within one week from today. Consolidated copy of OA after amendment be served to the Ld. CPO and respondents. OA adjourned to 6.4.2016 for filing affidavit in reply. MA is allowed in these terms with no order as to costs.
