3. Amendment relates to a representation submitted by applicants on 3.2.2017. Secretary, Revenue & Forest Department is directed to decide the applicants' representation.

4. Considering that the matters are being covered by the Full Bench judgment of the Hon'ble High Court, it is hoped that any longer time for deciding the representations could not be justifiable.

5. However, in absence of response from respondent no.1 as to the time frame within with the representations would be decided it is considered appropriate to get further response. Hence, hearing is adjourned to 5.5.2017. It would be appropriate if the representations are decided within reasonable time.
