Shri A.P.Sadavarte, the Id. counsel for the applicant and Shri S.A.Deo, the Id. C.P.O. for the State.

2. I have perused the impugned transfer order, it is contended that without complying the provision under Section 4(4)(5) of the Transfer Act, 2005 in absence of any reason without seeking sanction of the higher authorities, the applicant is transferred in the mid-term, therefore, the transfer order is on its face illegal. The Id. counsel for the applicant submitted that interim relief should be given to the applicant till final decision of this application.

3. I have perused the order dated 16/11/2019, vide this order the applicant is relieved from the post. The Id. counsel for the applicant submitted that he has received this order on 19/11/2019, as the applicant is already relieved from the post, therefore, as directed by Hon'ble Apex Court, it is suitable for the applicant to resume the transfer post. Even if the applicant joins the duty as per the transfer order, this will not vitiate his right to challenge the order, I, therefore, direct to issue notice to the respondents returnable after two weeks.
