Dated : 12th April 2017.

Heard Shri G.G. Bade, the learned counsel for the applicant and Shri M.I. Khan, the learned P.O. for the respondents.

The applicant in this O.A. has asked for relief of quashing and setting aside the order dated 26.11.2010 passed in appeal and the order dated 6.5.2005 passed by respondent No.2 whereby the order of punishment of compulsory retirement has been inflicted upon the applicant. He is also claiming reinstatement.

The learned counsel for the applicant pointed out to the reply affidavit filed by the respondent Nos. 2 and 3 and particularly sub-para of para No.16 at page No.45 of the paper book which is as under:-

“It is submitted that, after inflicting punishment of compulsory retirement the applicant, though his counsel issued notice to the respondents regarding awarding of pensionary benefits to him the respondents made necessary correspondence with the applicant for settlement of his retiral and pensionary benefits asking him to submit necessary forms and documents so as to send the papers to the sanctioning authority. Hence, it is submitted that the application made by the applicant before the Hon'ble Tribunal is infructuous. Hence, the application is liable to be dismissed on this count. Copy of the above-mentioned notice given to the respondents through his counsel is annexed as Annexure R-III.”

The learned counsel for the applicant submits that in view of the fact that the respondents are considering the applicant's name for pensionary benefit inspite of the compulsory retirement and the proposal has been sent to the sanctioning authority, application can be disposed of with directions. However, if it is allowed to do so, the applicant may not be entitled to the relief of quashing and setting aside the order as per prayer clause. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that he will take instructions from his client and will make necessary statement on the next date.
