The learned counsel for the applicant fairly concedes that the orders are issued passed by the respondents and the bills are submitted. His grievance is that, the actual payment is not done. Now it is likely to be done and as such the C.A. stands disposed of. Hence, the C.A. is disposed of as grievance of the applicant is redressed, in case payment is not made for the above reasons, the applicant is at liberty to take proper recourses, available to him. C.A. is disposed of.

in the contempt jurisdiction, 3rd party cannot have any interest. Submission is well founded. However, the learned counsel for the applicant submits that at present the applicant is working on the post where the applicant is claiming. As such, it will be desirable if he is also heard and as it will not cause any prejudice to other side also. Matter will be completely decided. He should be added new respondent.
