Coram: Shri J.D. Kulkarni,
Vice-Chairman (J).

Dated : 16th March 2017.

C.A.393/2015 in C.P.(St.) 1578/2015.

Heard Shri M.V. Mohokar, the learned counsel for the applicant and Shri M.I. Khan, learned P.O. for the respondents.

The order to be complied with passed by this Tribunal on 3.3.2015 in O.A. No. 499/2014. The respondents were directed to decide the period of suspension according to law and release the outstanding terminal benefits to the applicant within three months, since the order of punishment dated 26.6.2014 was quashed and set aside. Till today, said order has not been complied with. It is submitted that the Writ Petition was filed before the Hon^{ble} High Court against the order passed by this Tribunal and the same came to be dismissed on 18.10.2016. This clearly shows an attitude on the part of the respondents not to comply with the order of this Tribunal. Prima facie, there seems to be a contempt committed by the respondents. However, in the interest of justice, one more chance is given to the respondents. The respondents are directed to comply the order within two weeks, failing which contempt proceedings for contempt shall be initiated.

3. The learned P.O. submitted that in view of the said interim order, the applicant was permitted to submit an application form for CET for the Post Graduate Medical Course as an in-service candidate. Interim order, therefore, seems to have been complied with. Contention raised by the applicant as observed in para 11 of the interim order dated 22.12.2016 will have to be considered on merit. In view thereof, C.A. for contempt stands disposed of and the O.A. shall be kept for final hearing whenever regular D.B. is available.

Perusal of the said order shows that the applicant was kept under suspension vide order dated 27.11.2014 and the said order has been quashed. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that even though the applicant was kept under suspension, he has not been paid suspension allowance, which was his right. However, considering the fact that the suspension has already been quashed. There is no question of payment of suspension allowance, as the applicant will be entitled to regular pay. Prima facie, I am satisfied that there is any contempt in the matter. However, the learned P.O. submits that he wants to file reply and for that seeks one week's time.

As per order passed by this Tribunal in O.A. No. 251/2011 on 23.11.2015, the impugned communications dated 7.1.2011 and 14.3.2013 were quashed and the applicant's case for correction of date of birth was to be considered afresh in the light of legal provision and was to be decided by passing a reasoned order within six months.

The learned P.O. submits that the proposal in this regard has been submitted to General Administration

Department of the Govt. and it is at its final stage. He submits that four weeksq time may be required to comply the order. It is material to note that the order was passed on 23.11.2015 and was to be complied within six months. However till today, the order is not complied with. There seems to be prima facie contempt committed by the respondents. However, before initiating contempt proceedings, one more chance is given in the interest of justice and equity and the respondents are directed to comply with the order within three weeks.

As per impugned order passed in O.A.No. 116/2015 dated 29.4.2016, the respondents were directed to promote the applicant as Executive Engineer in the same deemed date as his immediate junior who was promoted. It is further stated that the applicant's pay on promotion to the cadre of Executive Engineer will be only notional and it will count towards granting pensionery and other retiral benefits, as he stood retired before he could be promoted.

Necessary order be issued within eight weeks from the date of receipt of this order.

The learned P.O. has placed on record the communication dated 21.12.2016 which is marked %%+ for identification and submitted that the applicant has already been promoted and deemed date of promotion has been granted to him. The impugned order therefore seems to be complied with. However, since nobody appeared for the applicant today, matter be kept on 23rd March 2017 for passing necessary order.

C.A.447/2016 -

Heard Shri S.G. Shukla, Id. counsel for the applicant and Smt. M.A. Barabde, Id. P.O. for R-1 to 3. None for R-4 to 6.

2. From the arguments put forth in the application, it seems that as per the order dated 26-02-2014 in O.A. No. 686/1994 the respondents were directed to consider the applicant for the promotional post of Head of Department (HOD) (Textiles) or equivalent. It was observed in the order that one post of HOD (Textiles) was vacant at Solapur and therefore the applicant can be considered for promotion. It is stated that since the said order has not been complied with, the applicant has filed the Contempt Petition.

3. The learned P.O. submits that they have also filed Review Petition for reviewing the impugned order passed by this Tribunal and the said Review Petition is also tagged with Contempt Petition.

4. In the O.A. the applicant claims for promotion which is pending and now by filing this C.A.No.447/2016 the applicant wants the O.A.No.538/2014 to be tagged with Contempt Petition. On going to the pleadings in the O.A. as well as application, I feel that it will be in the interest of justice and equity tagged with O.A.No.538/2014 with the Contempt Petition. Hence, the C.A. is allowed. The O.A.No.538/2014 shall be tagged along with Contempt Petition

No.1321/2014.

Coram : Hon. Shri J.D.Kulkarni,
Vice-Chairman (J).

Dated : 16.03.2017.

Heard Shri P.D. Meghe, Id. counsel for the applicant and Shri S.A. Sainis, Id.
P.O. for the respondents.

2. Vide order dated 2nd March,2017 it was stated that the applicant sought time to file an application for condonation of delay, if necessary.

3. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that though he has claimed that the inquiry report dated 12-6-2014 (A-10,P-42 to 78) be quashed and set aside, no final decision has been taken on the said report even though show cause notice was issued on 21-7-2016. The question of limitation therefore can be heard on merit and the respondents will be at liberty to raise that point in their reply affidavit.

4. The learned P.O. seeks three weeks time to file affidavit-in-reply. At his request, S.O. 6-4-2017.
