The learned counsel for the applicants field rejoinder. It is taken on record and its copy is supplied to the Ld. P.O. It seems that the applicants were appointed as Laboratory Technician vide order dated 17.11.1988 and were sent for training. After completion of training, they were again appointed vide order dated 5.6.1989 for two months and vide order dated 28.8.1989, they were again appointed. The said appointment continued. But the applicants were not absorbed and, therefore, they have field these O.As initially for regularization of their services. It is stated that during the pendency of the O.As., services of the applicants came to be absorbed / regularized vide G.R. dated 30.3.2016. However, they have been regularized from the date of issuance of this G.R. and not retrospectively. According to the applicants, their previous service from 17.11.1988 till they were absorbed should have been considered as continuous service. However, this seems to be a total continuous cause of action based on the G.R. dated 30.3.2016. The Ld. counsel for the applicants submitted that he will take instructions from his clients whether to withdraw the O.As and to file fresh O.As and challenge the G.R. dated 30.3.2016 for which he seeks two weeks time.
