M.C.A. 49/2017

Heard Shri P.N. Warjurkar, Id. P.O. for the applicant (Org. respondents) and Shri P.V. Thakre, Id .P.O. for the respondent (Org. applicant).

2. The learned P.O. for the applicant (Org. respondents) has prayed that time may extended to comply the order passed in O.A. 639/2016 on 17/4/2017. Vide said order following direction was given :-

“The respondents are directed to pay the retiral and other remainig benefits to the applicant as claimed by him in para no.6.6 of the O.A. within three months from the order. In case such amount is not paid within three months, the applicant will be entitled to claim interest on the delayed payment of amount as per Rules from the initial date of his Retirement. The applicant may file representation to that effect if the amount is not given within three months. It is needless to say that the applicant needs to cooperate the respondent authority.”

3. The aforesaid order is very specific and clear in terms which shows that if the amount is not paid within three months from the date of order by the respondent authority, the applicant will be entitled to claim interest on the delayed payment. In my opinion granting further time for compliance of the order will be nothing but reviewing the order dated 17/4/2017. In such circumstances, no extension can be granted.

4. Hence, C.A. stands disposed of accordingly.

O.A. No. 662/2017.

Coram: Shri J.D. Kulkarni,
Vice-Chairman (J).

Dated : 7th September 2017.

Heard Shri D.M. Surjuse, the learned counsel for the applicant and Shri S.A. Deo, the learned C.P.O. for the respondent No.1.

2. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is facing criminal trial on the similar charges for which departmental enquiry was also conducted. From the admitted facts on record, it seems that the final notice has been issued in the departmental enquiry, whereas the criminal trial is still pending. The learned counsel for the applicant placed reliance on the judgment reported in (1999) 3 SCC 679 in Capt. M. Paul Anthony V/s Bharat Gold Mines

Limited and others. He specifically invited my attention to para 22 (ii) of the said citation, wherein it has been concluded that if the departmental proceedings and the criminal case are based on identical and similar set of facts and the charge in the criminal case against the delinquent employee is of a grave nature which involves complicated question of law and fact, it would be desirable to stay the departmental proceedings till the conclusion of the criminal trial. However sub para (v) of the said clause says that if the criminal cases does not proceed or its disposal is being unduly delayed, the departmental proceedings even if they were stayed on account of pendency of the criminal case, can be resumed and proceeded with so as to conclude them at an early date, so that the employee is found not guilty, his honour may be vindicated and in case he is found guilty, the administration may get rid of him at the earliest.

3. In the present case, admittedly the departmental enquiry is continued since long and it has reached to finality. The applicant did not approach immediately to this Tribunal for getting the enquiry stayed. If the departmental action is taken against the applicant, he has right to file appeal and also he can approach the Tribunal if the appeal is not decided in this case. Considering all these aspects, the reply of respondents is necessary.

4. Issue notice to R. 2 to 4 returnable within four weeks.

5. S.A. Deo, the learned C.P.O. waives notice for respondent No.1. Hamdast granted.

6. Tribunal may take the case for final disposal at this stage and separate notice for final disposal need not be issued.

7. Applicant is authorized and directed to serve on Respondents intimation / notice of date of hearing duly authenticated by Registry, along with complete paper book of O.A.

8. This intimation / notice is ordered under Rule 11 of the Maharashtra Administrative Tribunals (Procedure) Rules, 1988, and the questions such as limitation and alternate remedy are kept open.

9. The service may be done by hand delivery, speed post or courier and acknowledgement be obtained and produced along with affidavit of compliance in the Registry within three weeks. Applicant is directed to file Affidavit of compliance and notice.
