I have heard the submission at the bar. The Id. advocate for the applicant in all fairness accepts the position that the Division Bench of this Tribunal in deciding O.A.'s 60/2015 and 716/2009 was pleased to dismiss the same and this O.A. is on exactly the same facts. Therefore the Id. P.O. for the respondents in fairness submits that subject to the rights of the applicant to consider taking steps there against this O.A., in line with those two applications stands hereby dismissed with no order as to costs for same reasonings.

Shri S.A.Pathak, Id. counsel for the applicant. Smt. Barabde, Id. P.O. for the respondents.

The O.A. is heard for some time although it is an old O.A. but I am afraid it will not be possible to dispose it of today. I was keen to find out if this matter of a Sweeper who has been running from pillar to post could be decided atleast now. It so happens that after just two weeks of his appointment by the impugned order he came to terminated. The harp is on regularization. There were proceedings before The Hon'ble Labour Court, The Hon'ble Industrial Court and The Hon'ble High Court. In fact it seems that when the O.A. was brought the interim relief granted by the Hon'ble High Court was inforce but in due course of time that Writ Petition was dismissed either because the complaint before the Hon'ble Labour Court went by default or for default itself but as of today no such proceeding is pending before the Hon'ble High Court. Therefore I am constrained to accept Mr. Pathak's request to let him amend the O.A. to bring the facts in a systematic manner. In the meanwhile the respondents may also consider as to whether their action of issuing the impugned order without even a show cause notice and also by the very nature of the wordings of the order is sustainable. For the present adjourned to S.O. 02/03/2017.
